SERVICE 01

Supported Community Connection

A full life includes the people, places, and activities that give it meaning. Supported Community Connection helps individuals take part in their communities in ways that reflect their own interests and choices.

Our team supports individuals as they explore new places, try new activities, and build relationships — encouraging independence and confidence along the way.

What community connection focuses on

Community participation

Taking part in community activities, events, and everyday places.

Personal choice

Activities are guided by each person's own interests and preferences.

Social connections

Opportunities to build friendships and relationships.

Meaningful activities

Spending time on things that bring purpose and enjoyment.

Examples of community activities

Community events

Library visits

Shopping trips

Recreation

Arts & culture

Social activities

Activities are planned around each person's interests, goals, and support plan.

SERVICE 02

Transportation Assistance

Getting there matters. Transportation Assistance helps individuals reach the places that are part of their daily lives, routines, and goals.

Reliable access to community destinations makes it easier to keep appointments, take part in activities, and stay connected to the people and places that matter.
