SERVICE 01

Spec Habilitation (Day Program)

Spec Habilitation is Good Morning Agency's day program, offering individualized support and meaningful daytime activities in a welcoming, structured setting.

Every voice matters, and communication may look different for everyone. Our team listens, understands, and supports each person so that time in the program reflects their interests, abilities, and goals.

Examples of support

Support is shaped around each person's plan, goals, and preferences, and may include:

- ✓ Individualized activities based on personal interests
- ✓ Opportunities to practice everyday skills
- ✓ Social time and connection with others
- ✓ Encouragement for communication and self-expression

Goals we work toward together

- ✓ Engaging in meaningful activities
- ✓ Building skills at a personal pace
- ✓ Connecting with others
- ✓ Expressing choices and preferences

SERVICE 02

CHRP Services

Good Morning Agency provides CHRP Services as part of our commitment to individualized, person-centered support.

Because every family's situation is unique, our team takes the time to explain how CHRP Services work, answer your questions, and help you understand whether these services may be a good fit.

Questions to ask our team

We're happy to walk you through the details. Families and case managers often ask:

- ❓ What do CHRP Services at Good Morning Agency include?
- ❓ Who are these services designed for?
- ❓ How does the referral or enrollment process work?
- ❓ How does your team coordinate with case managers and families?
- ❓ Which areas do you currently serve for CHRP Services?

Individualized

Support is shaped around each person's needs, strengths, and goals.

Collaborative

We work alongside families, guardians, and case managers.

Compassionate

Care that respects dignity and individuality.
